

Citizen Charter:

Dear Citizen,

We at Diphu Medical College are happy to state that we have arrived here at Diphu, the place of joy in the bonhomie Mikir Hills where the sun shines as a glow of fireball and for today's generation is popularly known as Karbi Anglong. We are here to render our services to the cause of health care and the well being of the inhabitants of the wonderland. We are committed to strive for the best, we are here to serve and care, search and share. The Diphu Medical College stands aloft in the gorgeous meadows of the district amidst the scenic hilly terrains shining as a lonely star in the dark skies of the district. The majestic mansion stands aloft with the aim of disbursing not only quality health care services in all aspects of the medical specialities but also an alma mater throwing arrows of knowledge and spears of light enriching the medical literature and pondering on the wonders of the diseases at the wandering causative agents and emphasizing the research. We at Diphu Medical College will not rest by providing the state of art healthcare services to the people of Karbi Anglong and adjoining areas alone but we are here to deliver quality knowledge in modern medical science and shall produce future doctors of high professional skills with humane approach with the intended aim of providing the best of medical care to the generation next. With this humble visionary, the Diphu Medical College is born. You are welcome to Diphu Medical College and Hospital, Diphu the 7th Medical College of Assam. We strive hard to provide comprehensive, high quality tertiary level health care to inhabitants living in remote areas of a wide area of Karbi Anglong district, neighboring districts of Assam and the adjacent state of Nagaland.
